Sinnott Joins Board of Elections

(Columbus) Brad Sinnott is the newest member of the Franklin County Board of Elections. He was sworn in today to succeed fellow Republican Michael Colley who resigned last month after serving more than nine years as a board member.

An attorney, Sinnott is a partner at the Columbus law firm of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease. He also chairs the Franklin County Republican Party's central committee and will continue to serve in that role.

Sinnott joins Chairman Doug Preisse as one of two Republicans on the board of elections. They will team with Democrats Zach Manifold and Kim Marinello to oversee all facets of election law in Franklin County, an election jurisdiction serving more than 792,000 voters.
